

TWO KINDS OF CHILDREN

Children that grow too fast and those that seem hardly to grow at all, both need Scott's Emulsion.

It gives that rich vital nourishment which is the secret of all healthy growth. It rounds out the long limbs, and helps children to grow without using up all their strength in growing.

Mothers ought to know more about the wonderful help which Scott's Emulsion would give their children.

We'll send you a sample free upon request.

TRAINING SCHOOL FOR HORSES

Wanted—One hundred head of unbroken horses. I am located for the winter at the Dutch Henry feed yard, corner of Alta and Little streets, where I conduct a first-class training and sale stable. If you want to buy a horse I will take your order and select the best horse for you, or if you have a horse to sell I am well acquainted with the best buyers. I am well equipped to break and handle any horse from the finest blooded stock to the wildest and most desperate broncho. There is no horse but can be broke and be made to drive or work nicely if he be handled correctly. I have broke one hundred and twenty-three head in Pendleton, some of which had become desperadoes. I guarantee satisfaction in every case.

FREDERICK THE GREAT

HIS STATUE UNVEILED

AT WASHINGTON, D. C.

Is Made the Occasion of Much Oratory and a Great Display of Bunting and Fraternal Feeling—A Flood of Music and an Impressive Display of Every Evidence of International Good Feeling—Statue is the Gift of Kaiser Wilhelm.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 19.—Amid the enthusiastic demonstrations of a great concourse of people, the bronze statue of Frederick the Great, a gift of Emperor William to the people of the United States, was unveiled today. Seldom has an event presented so many brilliant features of military pageantry and at the same time given occasion for the manifestation of the strong bonds of friendship between the German empire and the United States.

The ceremony of unveiling occurred on the esplanade of the Army war college in the Washington barracks reservation. Surrounding the statue were great stands to accommodate the many officials and guests invited to take part in the exercises. On every hand the colors of the United States and Germany were blended. Within the amphitheater formed by the stands were gathered the representatives of every branch of the government, including the president of the United States and members of the cabinet, the chief justice and associate justices of the United States supreme court, the chief of staff of the army, the admiral of the navy, senators and representatives.

Not less notable was the representation of Germany designed by Emperor William. The special commissioners representing his imperial majesty were Lieutenant General von Loewenfeld and Major von Schmetten, both of whom are descended from officers of Frederick the Great. With them were the German ambassador, Baron Speck von Sternburg, and the entire staff of the German embassy, all in brilliant diplomatic uniform, while the diplomatic corps was represented by the British, Russian, Italian and Mexican ambassadors and the ministers from many foreign countries.

A troop of cavalry escorted President Roosevelt and the members of the cabinet from the White House to the scene of the ceremonies. When the president arrived at the stand the entire assemblage rose and greeted him with cheers. After an impressive invocation by Bishop Satterlee, President Roosevelt delivered the address of welcome. He spoke in a strong voice and with great earnestness, pausing frequently at the outbursts of applause. As the president concluded his address the Baroness Speck von Sternburg caught up the cords to the flags enveloping the statue, and the massive bronze figure emerged through the folds of red, white and black. At the same instant the boom of an artillery salute came from a battery of heavy guns near by, and the strains of the German national anthem came from the Marine band.

It was an inspiring moment, and, led by President Roosevelt, the entire assemblage joined in the cheering. Another demonstration occurred at the close of Baron Speck von Sternburg's address.

IN PENDLETON

Every Claim is Backed by Local Testimony.

If the reader wants stronger proof than the following statement and experience of a resident of Pendleton, what can it be?

W. A. Rose, living on Cottonwood street, says: "Doan's Kidney Pills were first brought to my notice some four years ago, when I was living in Peoria, Ill. At that time I was suffering severely from an attack of kidney complaint and could scarcely do a day's work. To stoop or rise after stooping hurt so acutely that I could hardly keep from crying out. When a man has suffered with a back which felt half the time as though it was broken, which could not stand the slightest pressure, when he could not sit down, stand or lie with any comfort and still has to go to his daily work he naturally becomes anxious about his condition. I procured Doan's Kidney Pills, used them and they cured me. About a year ago I came to Washington, and shortly afterwards noticed symptoms of my old trouble. I procured Doan's Kidney Pills at Brock & McComan Co.'s drug store and three boxes completely banished the trouble leaving no signs that I had even had a touch of kidney trouble in my life. Doan's Kidney Pills do all that is claimed for them. You are welcome to refer to me at any time and I will gladly give all particulars in a personal interview to anyone calling on me."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

burg's speech when he spoke of the strong ties of blood and sympathy binding together the people of America and the Fatherland. Another speaker who received an ovation was Assistant Secretary of War Oliver, who spoke on behalf of the war department in the absence of Secretary Taft.

PROMISE A MOTIVE.

Eighth Juror Selected for the Trial of Nan Patterson.

New York, Nov. 18.—The prosecution in the trial of Nan Patterson, charged with the murder of "Caesar" Young, promises at the proper time to furnish a motive which they say will cause a sensation.

A letter received by Miss Patterson's counsel was made public today. It is written in German, signed "L. Black." The writer claims he was a witness to the shooting and saw Young with a revolver in his hands and heard the shot fired. He is willing to appear as a witness.

The eighth juror was accepted this morning. Miss Patterson is an interested spectator of the proceeding again this morning, and appears radiant and confident.

THEATREDOM

Haverly's Minstrels.

The forthcoming engagement of W. E. Nankeville's enormous Haverly's minstrels at the Frazer on December 8, will no doubt prove to be the season's big event.

Polite minstrelsy, as presented by this splendid organization of able entertainers, is always sure of a welcome from the average theatergoer, and in this season's program, they will find the bone of contentment of that delightful form of entertainment.

The company numbering nearly half a hundred people, represents the premiers from the front ranks of minstrelsy, and the great register is headed by "the minstrel man," Billy Van, or as he has been appropriately surnamed, "the assassin of sorrow."

Mr. Van receives the highest salary of any single burnt-cork artist in the profession today, and will, as usual, present a brand new routine of merry jests and comic songs, all of which he is the author and creator of.

Second in prominence in the comedy line is "Beau Brummel" Jimmy Wall, known as the new Billy Emerson, and a most finished exponent of refined and artistic minstrelsy. In addition to the above mentioned star twain, there are 10 other comedians, including Eddie Mazler and Andy Jenkins, all of whom have brilliant records as fun experts, and as past masters and purveyors of merriment.

"Shore Acres" December 1.

A good sized fortune has been spent for the turkey dinners that are served at each and every performance of "Shore Acres." As this is the play's 14th year and as over 3000 performances have been given of the play, and as the cost of each dinner averages about $8, you can easily figure out the total cost. Realism is expensive, but "Shore Acres" without its turkey dinner would not be "Shore Acres." The play comes to the Frazer December 1.

Keith Stock Company.

The Keith Stock Company comes to the Frazer on Monday night, November 21, for a week's engagement, opening with "Brother Against Brother." The popular prices of 10c, 20c and 30c will prevail and the company has an entertaining repertoire for the week.

PLEASED WITH MEAD.

Senator Ankeny Expresses Himself as to the Outcome in Washington.

United States Senator Levi Ankeny, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Statter, arrived in Pendleton last night from Walla Walla. Mr. Statter is Senator Ankeny's private secretary. He and Mrs. Statter left this morning for Sioux City, Iowa, where they will visit relatives for a few weeks before going on to Washington. Mr. Ankeny will start East a week from Monday.

Senator Ankeny is in Pendleton today for the purpose of attending to matters connected with the First National Bank, of which he is president. The senator is much interested in the irrigation projects affecting the Inland Empire, and expresses himself as highly pleased with the recent action of Secretary Hitchcock of the interior department, in approving of the plans for the reclamation of 80,000 acres of land in the Palouse river country.

"The outcome of the republican campaign in the state of Washington," said the senator, "is highly gratifying to me. Governor-elect Mead will prove, I am sure, a very competent man for the head of the affairs of the state."

COMING EVENTS.

November 15-18—National Irrigation Association, El Paso, Texas.

November 24—Thanksgiving in the United States, Porto Rico, Hawaii, Guam and the Philippines.

November 25-27—Oregon Y. M. C. A. state meeting, Salem.

November 25-26—State convention county clerks and recorders, Portland.

December 13-15—Oregon Good Roads Association, Salem.

June 1, 1935—Opening Lewis and Clark exposition.

Notice.

The office relationship formerly existing between Doctors Smith and Ringo, has by mutual consent been this day dissolved. Dr. Smith will collect all accounts and pay all bills. Dated at Pendleton, Oregon, this 14th day of November, 1934.

Signed: SMITH & RINGO.
